Period of Insurance

Your holiday or journey must begin and end in your home country. Cover cannot start after you have left your home country.

Cover for cancellation starts from the date you book your trip or pay the insurance premium, whichever is the later, unless you have bought an annual multi-trip policy in which case cover for cancellation starts at the time you book your trip or the start date shown on your validation certificate, whichever is the later. All other sections commence when you leave your usual place of residence or business, or from the start date shown on your validation certificate, whichever is the later; to commence the journey until the time you return to your usual place of residence or business on completion of your journey, or the end of the period shown on your validation certificate, whichever is the earlier. Cover cannot start more than 24 hours before your booked departure time or end more than 24 hours after your return.

Single-Trip Policy:

The start and end dates of your insurance trip are set out on your validation certificate. The maximum duration for one trip is 31 days.

Cover is provided for trips within your home country if you have booked accommodation for two or more nights in a row.

Annual Multi-Trip Policy:

This cover entitles you to take as many trips as you like within a period of 12 months from the start date of insurance as shown on your validation certificate provided each trip has a maximum length of 31 days. Cover is provided for trips within your home country if you have booked accommodation for two or more nights in a row.

By paying an additional premium, cover can be provided for winter sports for up to 10 days in each policy year.

Annual policy holders - auto-renewal service

To make sure you have continuous cover under your policy, Debenhams Travel Insurance will aim to automatically renew (auto-renew) your policy when it runs out, unless you tell them not to. Each year Debenhams Travel Insurance will write to you 21 days before the renewal date of your policy, and tell you about any changes to the premium or the policy terms and conditions. If you do not want to auto-renew your policy, just call Debenhams Travel Insurance on 0844 888 2792. Otherwise They will collect the renewal premiums from your credit card or debit card.

You should also note that your renewed policy will only be valid when:

- you have told them about any changes to your policy details (including any changes in health conditions);
- and your credit card or debit card details have not changed.

In some cases Debenhams Travel Insurance may not be able to automatically renew your policy. They will let you know at the time if this is the case.

Debenhams Travel Insurance are entitled to assume that your details have not changed and you have the permission of the card holder unless you tell them otherwise. Insure & Go Insurance Services Ltd do not have your payment details. They will tell the relevant processing bank that have your payment details to charge the relevant premium to your debit card or credit card on or before the renewal date.

You can tell Debenhams Travel Insurance about any changes to your policy details or opt out of automatic renewal at any time by phoning us on 0844 888 2792.

'Cooling-Off' Period

If this cover is not suitable for you and you want to cancel your policy, you must write (either by e-mail or letter, which you can post or fax to the number below) to Debenhams Travel Insurance within 14 days of buying your policy or the date you receive your policy.

In line with the conditions below, they will refund all the premiums you have paid within 30 days of the date you write to them to ask to cancel the policy.

For all single trip policies that have an end date within one month of the date of purchase, there will be no cancellation cooling off period applicable and no refund will be payable on these policies.

If you are a single-trip policyholder whose cover ends more than one month after the date of purchase, they will not refund your premium if you have traveled or made a claim before you asked to cancel the policy.

If you are an annual multi-trip policyholder and you have traveled or made a claim before you asked to cancel the policy, Debenhams Travel Insurance will only refund part of the premium.

The European Union Travel Directive

Under the new travel directive issued by the European Union (EU) you are entitled to claim compensation from your carrier if any of the following happen.

1 Denied boarding and cancelled flights

If you check in on time but are denied boarding because there are too many passengers for the seats available or your flight is cancelled, the airline operating the flight must offer you financial compensation.

2 Long delays

If a delay of two hours or more is expected by the airline, they must offer you meals and refreshments, hotel accommodation and communication facilities. If the delay is more than five hours, the airline must also offer to refund your ticket.

3 Baggage

If your checked-in baggage is damaged or lost by an EU airline, you must make a claim to the airline within seven days. If your checked-in baggage is delayed, you must make a claim to the airline within 21 days of its return.

4 Injury and death in accidents

If injury or death results from an accident on a flight by an EU airline, you may claim from the airline for damages.

5 Package holidays

If your tour operator fails to provide the services you have booked, for example, any flights or a significant part of your booked package, you may claim for damages from the tour operator.
